President's Message

A big thank you to our Treasurer Cindy Casaus for stepping in and running the June meeting in my absence. I know she did an excellent job and kept the meeting running on time. I heard Senator Kelli Ward spoke on several issues that she is passionate about and I think she is doing well getting herself ready to run for higher office. We wish her all the best.

Debbie Smith

Our July meeting promises two speakers; Doug MacEachern, conservative writer with the AZ Republic and Anna Brennan, candidate for the Mayoral race in Phoenix. I am looking forward to hearing from both of them.

Thank you to ARW Parliamentarian Marjorie Miner for keeping us straight on the by-laws and getting those passed. We also elected 11 delegates and 2 alternates for the AzFRW convention at Desert Ridge in Scottsdale on September 10th.

Our field trip to the Capitol is July 14 at 1:00 PM. LD18 Representative Jill Norgaard will host us on the floor of the house and walk us through the process of a bill and how it is heard, debated and voted on. Also save the date and spread the word – August 11, 2015 from 7:30-9:30 am, ARW will be holding a breakfast fundraiser with Governor Doug Ducey as our guest speaker. The event will be held at the Four Points Sheraton in Ahwatukee off Elliott and I-10. Cost is listed on our website. Make sure to bring family and friends. See inside this newsletter and online at www.ahwatukeerepublicanwomen.com for details and registration.

With sincere appreciation,

President Debbie Smith

Happy Independence Day,

It is such an honor serving on the Ahwatukee Republican Women board. I am proud of this club and of our members. We truly are one of the most successful clubs in the state and that is due to all of you.

We have outstanding programs along with outstanding members who continue to bring in more outstanding women! This enhances our club as a whole. We are also attracting younger members that add to our club's diversity. Please continue to invite women you think would appreciate and enjoy our club.

This will be an exciting year with opportunities to hear from candidates and to volunteer on a Presidential campaign. If you haven't had that experience yet I highly recommend getting involved.

Please plan on attending our Governor's Breakfast on August 11th and invite your friends. Start right now! It will be an awesome event.

All my best,
 Mary Baumbach

An Independence Day Message

Calvin Coolidge's birthday was July 4th. He was President in 1926, when our nation held a celebration to mark the 150th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. On the day after his birthday that year, President Coolidge delivered an address in Philadelphia to honor the historic anniversary and the Declaration. The speech was part insightful American history lesson and part heartfelt, inspired sermon, to instruct people who were 150 years removed from the persons and events of 1776, and who had been influenced by both the misguided social and political philosophies of the Progressives, and the misguided faith in the material prosperity of the Roaring 20s. His words served then, and can serve us now, as a reminder of the political and moral thought that laid the foundation on which this great country was built. Here are excerpts from Coolidge's July 5, 1926, address:

We meet to celebrate the birthday of America... At the end of 150 years, the four corners of the earth unite in coming to Philadelphia...in grateful acknowledgment of a service so great, which a few inspired men here rendered to humanity... The Continental Congress was not only composed of great men, but it represented a great people... The American Revolution represented the informed and mature convictions of a great mass of independent, liberty loving, God-fearing people who knew their rights, and possessed the courage to dare to maintain them.

...There is something beyond the establishment of a new nation...in the Declaration of Independence which has ever since caused it to be regarded as one of the great charters... Three very definite propositions were set out in its preamble regarding the nature of mankind and...of government. These were the doctrines that all men are created equal, that they are endowed with certain inalienable rights, and that therefore the source of the just powers of government must be derived from the consent of the governed... The doctrine of equality...had not before appeared as an official political declaration of any nation. It was profoundly revolutionary.

...The principles of human relationship which went into the Declaration of Independence...are found in the texts, the sermons, and the writings of the early colonial clergy... They preached equality because they believed in the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. They justified freedom by the text that we are all created in the divine image, all partakers of the divine spirit. ...The Declaration of Independence...is a declaration not of material, but of spiritual conceptions. Equality, liberty, popular sovereignty, the rights of man -- these...have their source and their roots in the religious convictions.

...Our forefathers...[had] a wide acquaintance with the Scriptures. ...They were subject to this discipline not only in their religious life and educational training, but also in their political thought. They were a people who came under the influence of a great spiritual development and acquired a great moral power. No other theory is adequate to explain or comprehend the Declaration of Independence. It is the product of the spiritual insight of the people. ...Unless we cling to that, all our material prosperity, overwhelming though it may appear, will turn into a barren scepter in our grasp. If we are to maintain the great heritage which has been bequeathed to us, we must be like-minded as the fathers who created it. ...We must follow the spiritual and moral leadership which they showed.

General Meeting Minutes

Clarion Hotel-Tuesday, June 23, 2015

Meeting called to order 7:01 PM - Acting Chair, Cindy Casaus (Treasurer)

Invocation - Chaplain, Lisa Pomraning

Pledge of Allegiance - Americanism Chair, Priscilla Poese

Americanism - Priscilla offered information on a speech from John Q. Adams regarding the Declaration of Independence.

Introductions - Acting Chair, Cindy, recognized elected officials, officers and guests, and first timers in attendance.

Approval of Minutes - Terry Giebelhaus, Recording Secretary, asked if there were any corrections to the minutes of the last meeting that were in the newsletter. Being none, the minutes were approved as presented.

Treasury Report - Cindy Casaus, Treasurer, noted the Treasurer's report was included in the newsletter. There were no objections to the report - it will be filed.

Program - Cindy introduced Senator Kelly Ward as our speaker for the evening. Dr. Ward gave history of her introduction into politics and her hopes for the future, and her possible run against Senator McCain. Q&A followed.

President's Report - Cindy announced the field trip to the Capitol with Representative Jill Norgaard will be on July 14 at 1:00 PM. August 11 will be our breakfast with Governor Doug Ducey. Tonight's business will include voting on delegates for the state convention, and voting on the bylaw amendment.

Programs - The speaker for the July meeting will be Doug MacEachern from the AZ Republic.

Membership - 2nd VP, Mary Baumbach announced that our membership is now at 108, the increase entitling us to another delegate to the state convention. Winner of the July Birthday Drawing was Lisa Pomraning. AZ is hosting the National Convention in September. AzFRW will have a mini convention on Wednesday, Sept 10, from 8:00-12:00 noon to take care of state business, then move into the National Convention.

Bylaws Amendment - Parliamentarian and Bylaws Chair, Marjorie Miner, presented the bylaw change in order to allow the ARW to present the names of delegates to the AzFRW when requested by them. Article III - Policies - Section 4 should be changed to read: "Biennial State Convention: Delegates to the AzFRW Biennial Convention shall be the ARW President or her accredited alternate and one delegate for each ten (10) or fraction thereof, ACTIVE members in good standing. Alternates shall be selected for each delegate. Delegates and alternates to the AzFRW convention shall be selected according to the AzFRW bylaws." The amendment passed.

Delegate Voting - Ballots were passed out to all members. 11 delegates to the State Convention were elected along with two Alternates. During the counting of the ballots, another Q&A session was held with Sen. Ward. Cindy thanked Carolyn Hageman for sending out cards on behalf of the ARW. Jennifer Szatkowski, Education Committee, spoke of small cuts in funding.

Winner of the raffle basket was Mary Baumbach.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:20 by Cindy Casaus.

Ahwatukee Republican Women is affiliated with the Arizona Federation of Republican Women (AzFRW), and the National Federation of Republican Women (NFRW).

Members come together as a collective force to advance the influence of women through political access and participation.

We strengthen the Republican Party by recruiting, training and electing candidates, advocating the Party's philosophy and initiatives, and empower women of all ages, ethnicities and backgrounds in the political process.

In addition to political education and participation, our platform includes community service, and literacy.

-- Mission Statement --

To educate, inspire and encourage participation in the political process by volunteering our time and resources to elect Republican candidates and promote Republican ideals of peace through strength, prosperity through individual responsibility and liberty through limited government.
